

FORT MEADE DEFENSE INFORMATION SYSTEMS AGENCY (DISA) HEADQUARTERS, ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, MARYLAND

Client

United States Army Corp of Engineers - Baltimore District/Hensel Phelps Construction

Description

Construction of the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) Headquarters Facility at Fort Meade in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. Phases I and II of the project will involve the construction of 7 buildings (Command building, Operations building, Acquisitions/Development building, Lab building, Warehouse building, Common building and a Central Utility plant building) and 2992 parking spaces, including one two-level parking deck and 3 parking lots (Lots A, B, & C). The total site area is 101 acres and the limit of disturbance is 61 acres.

ccl Responsibility

ccl is providing construction stake-out, site work including the relocation of existing utilities and installation of new utilities (Water, Sewer, Storm Drain, Electric, Communication), sediment control staking including three (3) major storm-water management structures, road improvements, rough and fine grading work, parking lot construction, retaining walls and grading for snow removal areas.

Status

Started in the summer of 2008 and will continue until 2010

ccl Office

Maryland

